

FastTrac[®] to the Future

The First Day of Your Entrepreneurial Adventure

Macomb County is holding its first FastTrac[®] to the Future Class. Get ready to start your own small business!

FastTrac[®] to the Future is a program created by the New Economy Initiative and the Kauffman Foundation to provide a jump-start down the road to entrepreneurship through mentoring, training and resources.

Who should attend: Anyone who thinks entrepreneurship might be right for them.

FastTrac[®] in Macomb County will be held in the Macomb County Administration Building,
9th Floor Conference Room from 8:30 a.m. - noon.
Mondays, Sept. 14 – November 23 (no class on Oct 12).
Cost: $700

*Full scholarships are available.

To register for the Macomb County Class and receive a scholarship, you must first join us for a free full-day orientation to FastTrac[®] to the Future and learn about opportunities for creating innovative companies and growing jobs.

You must attend this session in order to obtain a scholarship. There will not be another opportunity.

Tuesday, August 18, 2009 from 7:30 AM to 6:00 PM

Registration

Only 500 seats are available for this event, and this is the last opportunity to attend FastTrac[®] to the Future, so early registration is strongly encouraged.

You must complete and submit the online application in order to attend FastTrac[®] to the Future. Click on <http://wayne.edu/fasttrac/> and then click "Registration".

Location: McGregor Memorial Conference Center, 495 West Ferry Mall, Detroit 48202.

Cost: Free

Contact: Rene Kelly, (313) 483-1322, rene.fasttrac@techtownwsu.org