

---

Macomb County Executive

Mark A. Hackel

---

The County has a vested interest in the safety and well being of all its employees and to provide services to the citizens. Many County services become more critical during poor weather conditions. There are also significant costs that occur as the result of a closing. For these reasons, it is the general policy that Macomb County does NOT close for inclement weather conditions.

Mark A. Hackel

Macomb County Executive

For updates residents can log onto: www.macombcountymi.gov