News Media Invited to Tour New Macomb County Juvenile Justice Center

News media are invited to tour the new Macomb County Juvenile Justice Center at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 21. This tour for credentialed media only is one day in advance of the $19 million facility opening for the first time.

Print, television and radio reporters and editors, photographers, videographers and sound technicians are welcome. This will be the only opportunity for media to see inside this state-of-the-art facility. Tours will not be available once youth are moved into the center.

Media interested in attending are asked to contact the Macomb County Office of Public Affairs as soon as possible so the correct number of tour guides can be scheduled.
