SENIOR OUTREACH DAY SCHEDULED FOR STERLING HEIGHTS

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – The Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services with the support of County Commissioner Robert Mijac will coordinate an Outreach Day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 19, at St. Jane Frances DeChantal Church.

Health screenings and vital information of interest to senior citizens will be offered at this clinic. St. Jane Frances DeChantal is located at 38750 Ryan Road, Sterling Heights.

Due to the shortage of the influenza vaccine, the Macomb County Health Department will not administer flu vaccinations at this event. The following free services will be offered to seniors at this site: Macomb County Discount Cards, blood pressure and cholesterol tests, height, weight and cardiovascular disease risk assessment, glaucoma screening and bone density tests. Free radon test kits for the home also will be available.

Representatives from the Senior Citizen Service Center and other agencies will be present with information of interest to seniors, and the Senior Nutrition program will offer boxed lunches for a $2 donation. For further information, contact Cathy Wilson at 586-469-6307.

The Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services is sponsored by the Macomb County Board of Commissioners and receives County funds for all services. Funding for the department also comes from the Area Agency on Aging 1-B, the state of Michigan, the Older American Act and the Family Independence Agency.

Editors note: This is one of a series of news releases regarding separate Senior Citizen Outreach Day programs in various Macomb County communities. Although the releases are similar, the programs differ slightly, are held at different locations, dates and times, and are sponsored by different members of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners.
