Dog trainer to offer tips at Macomb County Library

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – An expert from the Michigan Humane Society's Pet Education Center will offer tips on keeping pet dogs under control at a free program hosted by the Macomb County Library.

C.J. Bentley, certified dog trainer and behavior consultant, visits the Macomb County Library at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 27. Bentley will help guests understand their dogs and provide painless methods to discourage undesirable behavior. Dogs are not allowed to accompany their owners to the program.

Bentley frequently contributes newspaper articles and appears on local television to share insights on dog training and behavior.

This program is free, but seating is limited and registration is required. Call the Macomb County Library 586-286-6660 to register or for further information. The library is located at 16480 Hall Road, west of Garfield, in Clinton Township.

Visit www.macombcountylibrary.org for hours and information about other programs.

The Macomb County Library and its many programs and services are a public service of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners.
