Learn how to care for your lawn and yard at the Macomb County Library

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Learn about lawn fertilization, choosing the right plants for the right location, and pest management.

The “Low-Impact Lawn and Yard Care” program is 7 p.m. Thursday, June 26, at the Macomb County Library at 16480 Hall Road just west of Garfield in Clinton Township .

Sandra Goeddeke-Richards, horticulture program coordinator for Michigan State University Extension-Macomb, will discuss environmentally friendly lawn and garden techniques.

This program is free and open to the public, but reservations are required. Call Macomb County Library at 586-286-6660 for more information or reservations.

The library is open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday from September through May. Click on www.macombcountylibrary.org for dates and times of additional programs.
