“Going Buggy” at Macomb County Library

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Children can see bugs of all types up close when Doug Spiller brings the best of his “Going Buggy” insect collection to the Macomb County Library.

Spiller, an interpreter at the Stony Creek Metropark Nature Center, will be at the library 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 15, for this hour-long educational program for children ages 5 to 12 years old.

This program is free and open to the public, but space is limited and registration is required. For reservations or more information, call the Macomb County Library at 586-286-6660.

The program follows the theme of the library’s summer reading program “Catch the Reading Bug at Macomb County Library.”

The Macomb County Library is located at 16480 Hall Road by Garfield in Clinton Township. The library is open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Click on www.macombcountylibrary.org for dates and times of additional programs.

The Macomb County Library and its many programs and services are a public service of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners.
