Tocco and Flynn to continue as vice-chair and sergeant-at-arms

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Commissioners Kathy Tocco and Joan Flynn were elected by unanimous vote today to continue serving as vice-chair and sergeant-at-arms, respectively, of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners. The Board held its annual Organizational Meeting this morning.

“Kathy and Joan have served honorably and ethically and have remained committed to improving the Macomb community,” said Paul Gielegem, Chair of the Board. “I look forward to continuing to accomplish important work together this year.”

Tocco, 46, is serving her second two-year term on the County Board, representing District 20, Fraser and southwest Clinton Township. Flynn, 78, is serving her eighth consecutive term on the County Board, representing the residents of District 6 in eastern Warren and southeastern Sterling Heights.
