Board of Commissioners seeks volunteers to honor

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – The Macomb County Board of Commissioners is seeking nominations of county residents who made a difference in the community by giving their talents and time to volunteer. Those who donate at least 150 hours of their time to an organization or cause are eligible for recognition. Nominees must be a resident of Macomb County, but their work may be performed anywhere in southeast Michigan.

Of those nominated, a hundred of the most outstanding volunteers will be selected and recognized at an Administrative Services Committee meeting held during National Volunteer week.

“Volunteers make our community stronger,” said Paul Gielegem, chairman of the Board of Commissioners. “They don’t ask for anything in return but it’s important we express appreciation for their efforts.”

Nominations must be submitted by March 26, 2010. While most nominations come from churches, schools, hospitals, charitable organizations, civic, veteran, and senior groups that know a special person whose efforts made a difference, anyone is eligible to submit a potential honoree.

Nomination criteria, applications and more information is available online at www.macombcountymi.gov or by calling 586-469-5125.
