CRAIN'S DETROIT BUSINESS TO HONOR MACOMB ASSISTANT COUNTY EXECUTIVE MELISSA ROY

One of Detroit's top business publications will honor a Macomb County Assistant County Executive. Crain's Detroit Business has named Melissa Roy to be selected to their annual best "40 under 40" regional business leaders. She will be honored at a special dinner later this month.

Ms. Roy was selected by Macomb County Executive Mark A. Hackel to lead the Executive's legislative and intergovernmental initiatives, including his legislative agenda, strategy, advocacy, and negotiation with county, regional, state and federal decision makers.

Melissa returned to Macomb County earlier this year after serving 12 years with the Detroit Regional Chamber. She most recently headed up the chamber's Translinked program to develop a regional supply chain hub.

"Ms. Roy brings to our county institutional knowledge from the Detroit Chamber's governmental relations and economic development programs," says Macomb County Executive Mark A. Hackel. "She has been a great public servant during her first 10 months with our team and will help us improve the image of Macomb County in the region," added Executive Hackel.

A native of Macomb County, she has lived in both Chesterfield and New Baltimore. She attended L'Anse Creuse North High School in Macomb Township. Ms. Roy graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and German.
