NEWS - PHOTO NOTICE

Macomb County Executive and DTE Energy will debut electric vehicle charging stations at Macomb County Administration Building

- WHO: Macomb County Executive Mark A. Hackel and Officials from DTE
- WHAT: Macomb County Executive Mark Hackel will demonstrate the use of a free electric vehicle charging station that has been installed on county property in downtown Mount Clemens and adjacent to Oakland University's newly opened Anton/Frankel Center.
- WHEN: 11 a.m. on Monday October 24, 2011
- WHERE: Macomb County Administration Building Parking Lot
One South Main, Mount Clemens, MI 48043
- WHY: An electric car charging station has been installed on Macomb County property in downtown Mount Clemens with grant funds awarded by the U.S. Department of Energy to DTE Energy as part of an initiative to accelerate consumer acceptance of these fossil-fuel alternatives. At Oakland University's Anton/Frankel Center and downtown Mount Clemens, the charging station is expected to be a great convenience for students as well as visitors to county offices and downtown Mount Clemens.
- VISUAL: Macomb County Executive Mark Hackel will demonstrate the free charging station.
