Senior citizens invited to 11th Safe, Sound and Secure Conference

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County senior citizens can learn how to be on guard against identity theft, scams, and other crimes at the 11th Annual Safe, Sound and Secure Conference.

The conference is from 8:30 a.m. to noon on Thursday, August 4 at the Macomb Intermediate School District located at 44001 Garfield in Clinton Township.

The conference will feature Macomb County Sheriff Anthony Wickersham, Macomb County Prosecutor Eric Smith and Assistant Prosecutor Suzanne Faunce, director of the prosecutor's Senior Crime Unit and Angela Branch, Michigan assistant attorney general. They will discuss identity theft, scams and other common crimes. The Sheriff Department K-9 unit will perform demonstrations and exhibitors will be on hand to share safety information.

Light breakfast refreshments will be provided and attendees will have a chance to win door prizes. The conference is free, but seating is limited and reservations are required. Call Senior Citizen Services at 586-469-6313 for reservations or more information.
