Dementia discussion group

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County residents who have friends or family suffering from Alzheimer's or other dementia related illnesses are encouraged to attend an ongoing dementia discussion group.

Offered by the Macomb County Department of Senior Citizen Services in cooperation with the Greater Michigan Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, the free discussion group is a place where caregivers or family/friends can offer mutual support and share problems or other useful information.

Meetings will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the fourth Thursday of each month at the Southeast Health Center Auditorium, 25401 Harper Ave., St. Clair Shores.

The program is free, but registration is required. Supervised care for adults is available during the meeting for a fee of $10.

For more information or to register, call 586-466-6817.
