Financial Fitness Fair set for Jan. 12 in Warren

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – People can learn smart money management skills, meet with a foreclosure counselor and find out how to get other financial and tax advice at a free Financial Fitness Fair in January.

The event is sponsored by the Macomb County Community Services Agency, Macomb County Michigan State University Extension Service, Macomb County Asset Building Coalition, IRS, Accounting Aid Society, the cities of Warren and Roseville, United Way for Southeastern Michigan and other community organizations.

The Financial Fitness Fair is 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 12, at Warren City Hall, 1 City Square, north of 12 Mile Road and east of Van Dyke Avenue.

The fair will focus on topics such as foreclosure, bankruptcy, utility assistance, budgeting, and other asset development tools.

People can meet one-on-one with a foreclosure counselor, make an appointment to have their 2007 tax returns prepared free and open bank or credit union accounts.
