Seniors may get legal information at first legal forum event

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Senior citizens are invited to get free legal information at the first-ever Senior Legal Forum event scheduled for Thursday, June 5.

The forum will be from 9:30 a.m. to noon at the Macomb Intermediate School District building, south entrance, 44001 Garfield Road in Clinton Township.

Attorneys will discuss property issues, estate planning, bankruptcy requirements and contract laws. People may also get a “9-1-1” Cell Phone at this event. The program is free and includes morning refreshments provided through a partnership with Macomb Intermediate School District. Seating is limited and registration is required. Call Robin Auten at 586-466-8725 to register.

The seminar is presented by The Legal Assistance Program of Macomb County Senior Citizen Services in affiliation with the Macomb County Bar Association.
